

MLD Ireland

Manual Lymph Drainage Ireland

Code of Conduct

Members Code of Conduct

1. Members may simply state that they are members of MLD Ireland on professional stationery, if they list their membership category e.g. Full, Associate, Aesthetician Member.
2. In no circumstances may a member directly or indirectly canvas, advertise or seek publicity for patients in the name of MLD Ireland.
3. Articles shall not be written in the name of MLD Ireland without prior consent of the Committee.
4. The MLD Ireland logo is for the use of MLD Ireland only and must not be used by individual members.
5. A member shall not deprecate the professional skill, knowledge or qualifications of other members.
6. Every member is under an obligation to maintain the interest, honour and dignity of MLD Ireland.
7. Members must respect clients/patients confidentiality at all times.
8. Members must not treat people with MLD beyond their level of MLD qualifications.
9. Members must not treat people with a medical condition without the prior consent of the patient's Medical Practitioner.
10. Medical Practitioners advice and treatment must never be contradicted.
11. Absolute contra-indications for MLD treatment must always be respected.
12. Members should never attempt to diagnose a condition.
13. Members who are not certified to teach MLD must not attempt to do so.
14. Members who are not certified to teach MLD must not facilitate the teaching of MLD by an unqualified teacher.
15. Members who choose to demonstrate techniques to patients or to partners of patients accept full responsibility for such demonstration and outcome.